Subject(s)

JJ7 700, Juvenile Justice Assignment Unit Placement Process

This revision clarifies policy about the Juvenile Justice Assignment Unit (JJAU) including decision-making and operating practices associated with placement referrals to private and public agencies. The change expands on the role of structured decision-making and how it relates to court recommendations for placement in juvenile justice residential placements. The policy also provides guidance through reference to other placement options for juvenile justice youth.

Training element: Job Aid.

Reason: Policy clarification.
