COOPERATION NOTICE

Dear Ms. Last56:

Federal law and state policy require all persons receiving benefits from the Family Independence Program, Medicaid, Food Assistance Program and Child Development and Care or any combination of these programs, to cooperate with the Office of Child Support in establishing paternity and/or a child support order for each child. We previously notified you that you were not cooperating with the Office of Child Support. We now consider you cooperative in establishing paternity and/or child support.

Your MDHHS worker is aware of this letter and will inform you in writing how this finding will affect your case.

Sincerely,

Office of Child Support
