PURPOSE

Children in foster care can be their own best advocate if they have a full understanding of the system. When government and private agencies are entrusted with their care, it is critical that every effort be made to assure their safety and well-being, which includes taking steps to fully inform children and youth about their care, and provide them with opportunities to express their wishes.

REVIEW AND DISTRIBUTION

Initial Discussion and Review

Within 30 calendar days of removal, the caseworker must review and explain the DHS-5307, Rights and Responsibilities for Children and Youth in Foster Care, and the agency's grievance policy with the child, foster parents, caregiver and/or parents. The caseworker must be prepared to answer any questions the child, parents, foster parents, or relative caregiver may have.

After the document is reviewed the signatures of the child and caseworker must be obtained. The parent, foster parent, or caregiver must sign on behalf of the child, if the child is younger than 11 years old or is unable to sign the document.

The caseworker must complete the information on the last page of the document with the applicable contact information and provide all participants with a signed copy and upload a copy to MiSACWIS.

Ongoing Discussion and Review

The DHS-5307 may be used as a tool during the monthly home visit to facilitate ongoing discussions with the child about his/her rights while in foster care. The caseworker must be available to discuss with the child when he/she expresses curiosity or concern about his/her rights. The rights are to be discussed in an age appropriate manner.

Documentation

The DHS-5307 must be reviewed and re-signed annually. The contact must be documented in the social work contacts and the DHS-5307 must be uploaded to the Documents hyperlink in MiSACWIS.

Concerns/ Grievance Process

A copy of the supervising agency's grievance policy must be provided to the child, parent, or caregiver, with the DHS-5307, at initial discussion and annually thereafter.

If a child, parent, or caregiver expresses concern about a child's rights, the caseworker and/or supervisor must assist in resolving those concerns. If a consensus is not reached, the caseworker must assist the child, parent, or caregiver in following the agency's grievance procedure.

If the concerns are not resolved satisfactorily, the child, parent, or caregiver can contact the MDHHS Office of Family Advocate at (517) 373-2101.
