EBT ISSUANCE SCHEDULES

The Electronic Benefit Transfer Schedule is automatically mailed to each client. This schedule is also available for clients as a handout at the local offices.

The last number of the head of household's (HOH) recipient ID number identifies the date benefits are available to the cardholder using their Bridge card.

The HOH's recipient ID number does not appear on the Bridge card.

TREASURY WARRANTS

Benefit issuances in excess of $1000.00 will be issued in the form of a Treasury warrant. Treasury warrants are mailed to the client's mailing address 2 business days following the processing date. The warrant will have a warrant date of 3 business days after the processing date.

A manual issuance of $1400.00 approved by the worker on Monday will be mailed from Treasury on Wednesday night, and will be dated for Thursday; a payment approved on Friday will be mailed on Tuesday night with a warrant date for Wednesday.

Generally, clients can expect to receive a mailed warrant on the warrant date.
